

SAVE THE DATE!!!! – Codman Square NDC Foreclosure Symposium on September 8, 2010

Codman Square NDC is proud to announce its Foreclosure Symposium, “Developing a Coordinated Response to Maintain Neighborhood Stability,” being held on September 8, 2010 from 9:00am-11:00am in Codman Square.

The symposium will serve as a forum for the exchange of ideas among housing practitioners, policy makers, legislators, and community members about how to best respond to the foreclosure crisis in our service area, with a special focus on the impact of investor ownership and high foreclosure rates on the stability of Codman Square. Panelists include:

- Evelyn Friedman, Director of the City of Boston’s Department of Neighborhood Development (DND)
- Joe Flatley, President and CEO of the Massachusetts Housing Investment Corporation (MHIC)
- Aaron Gornstein, Executive Director of Citizens' Housing and Planning Association (CHAPA)
- LaRayne Hebert, District Director of Neighborworks America

In addition, the event will be moderated by special guest Kalima Rose, Senior Director at Policy Link and coauthor of the recently released report, “When Investors Buy Up the Neighborhood: Preventing Investor Ownership from Causing Neighborhood Decline.”

Further information to follow. For more information or to register for the event, please respond to Dana McQuillin at 617-825-4224 x135 or dana@csndc.com.
